Dated:

JULIAN HILL

Assistant Minister for Citizenship and Multicultural Affairs

Part 1 – Preliminary

1 Name of Direction

This Direction is the Direction 111– Order for considering and disposing of offshore Subclass 500 (Student) visa applications and may be cited as Direction 111.

2 Commencement

This Direction commences on the day after the date of signature.

3 Revocation

Direction no. 107 Order for considering and disposing of Student Guardian applications and offshore Subclass 500 (Student) visa applications dated 14 December 2023, is revoked.

4 Application

- (1) This Direction applies to delegates of the Minister who consider and dispose of:
 - (a) an offshore Subclass 500 \(Student\) visa application:
 - (i) made on or after commencement;
 - (ii) made, but not finally determined, before commencement;
- (2) This Direction does not apply with respect to applications where it is readily apparent that the criteria for the grant of the visa would not be satisfied.
- (3) This Direction does not apply to the Administrative Review Tribunal.

5 Preamble

- (1) The Government is working to strengthen the integrity and sustainability of the international Student visa program and the international education sector.
- (2) This Direction provides an order of priorities for considering and disposing of offshore Subclass 500 \(Student\) visa applications in an orderly fashion that aligns with the national interest, recognising:
 - (a) The economic impact on individual education providers including; the importance of regional higher education providers and outer metropolitan suburban universities, and TAFE providers in their communities; transitional arrangements needed to support University mergers; and the overall economic benefit to Australia of skills development across education sectors in supporting Australia's skills needs;
 - (b) There is a need to acknowledge operational flexibility in the allocation of processing resources within the order of priority below to manage surges or unexpected activity, which may relate to increases in integrity concerns. Decision-makers will act to support the integrity of the visa program, which may mean that some applications assigned to the Priority 1 – High category may take longer to finalise. That is to say, integrity issues will be acted upon regardless of the assigned priority; and

(c) As needed, within the allocated priorities, the Department of Home Affairs (the department) will balance overall priorities to ensure that visa application decisions are reached both efficiently and accurately, in accordance with the intent of this direction.

(3) This Direction draws upon work developed by the Departments of Education and of Employment and Workplace Relations and their consultations across the sector throughout 2024.

Note 1: Subsection 51(1) of the Act provides that the Minister can consider and dispose of applications for visas in such order as he or she considers appropriate.

Note 2: Subsection 499(1) of the Act empowers the Minister to give to a person or body having functions or powers under the Act written directions not inconsistent with the Act or the Regulations, in accordance with which the person or body shall perform those functions and exercise those powers. The person or body must comply with the direction.

Part 2 – Directions

7 Considering and disposing of applications

(1) In determining the order for considering and disposing of offshore Subclass 500 (Student) visa applications under section 51 of the Act, delegates are to have regard to the order set out in section 8 first taking into account the circumstances of individuals' visa applications to see if section 8(1)(b) applies and then, if necessary, to see whether section 8(1)(a) applies and then, if necessary, to see whether section 8(2) applies.

(2) The priority order set out below will operate in the offshore context only.

(3) The Department of Home Affairs will accord Priority 1 – High to Student visa applications associated with providers in the higher education and vocational education and training sectors who have not yet reached their prioritisation threshold.

(4) Visa applications associated with a provider will default to the Priority 2 - Standard level of prioritisation where the 'prioritisation threshold' for a particular provider has been reached, based on PRISMS information.

(5) For the purposes of determining processing priority of the relevant student visa applications under sections 7(3) and (4) above, in accordance with section 495A(1)(c) of the Migration Act, delegates having functions in relation to establishing the order of considering and disposing of visa applications are directed to do the following:

- a. Priority 1 – High processing is available because the 'prioritisation threshold' for a particular provider has not yet been reached, based on PRISMS information;
- b. Where Priority 1 - High processing is available, based on PRISMS information, give Priority 1 - High processing to a visa application for a student associated with that provider;
- c. Where Priority 1 - High processing is not available, based on PRISMS information revert to Priority 2 – Standard visa processing for visa applications associated with that provider.

(6) Certain visa applications are not subject to the arrangements in section 7(3) to 7(5) above and they are to be processed in either Priority 1 – High or Priority 2 – Standard as outlined in section 8.

(7) The existence of prioritisation of the offshore visa caseload in line with the 2025 indicative allocations of new overseas student commencements is not to be taken as a limit to or cap upon the total number of visas that may be granted to any provider. It is a number used solely for the purposes of determining the number of visa applications that are able to be processed with Priority 1 - High processing, before standard processing procedures in accordance with Priority 2 - Standard becomes applicable.

8 Order for considering and disposing offshore Subclass 500 (Student) visa applications

(1) Delegates will consider and dispose of applications with regard to the following priorities:

Priority 1 - High

Note: Once the prioritisation threshold for a provider has been reached, applications made in relation to the above sectors which are not otherwise in an exempt category as outlined below will be considered and disposed of in line with Priority 2 - Standard processing.

(c) For any other offshore Student visa.

19 Dec 2024

Ministerial Direction No. 111

Ministerial Direction 107 has been revoked and replaced by Ministerial Direction 111

The international education sector is important to Australia, and the Australian Government is committed to ensuring its equality, quality, integrity and sustainability.

MD107 has been revoked

Ministerial Direction 107 Order for considering and disposing of Student Guardian visa applications and offshore Subclass 500 (Student) visa applications (MD107) was designed to support providers with strong recruitment practises for international students and support the Department of Home Affairs at a time of increasing volumes and of risk in the caseload. The Australian Government acknowledges that the Student visa processing arrangements in accordance with MD107 unevenly impacted education providers.

MD107 was revoked on 18 December 2024.

New Ministerial Direction 111

Ministerial Direction 111 Order for considering and disposing of offshore Subclass 500 (Student) visa applications (MD111) came into effect on 19 December 2024 replacing MD107. MD111 applies to onhand, unfinalised Student visa applications lodged from offshore, as well as those lodged on or after that date, and sets out priority categories for processing Student visas applications.

Under MD111, priority processing (Priority 1 – High) will apply to offshore Student visa applications associated with a provider in the higher education and vocational education and training sectors who have not yet reached their prioritisation threshold as indicated by PRISMS, the Department of Education's system that manages enrolment information. Once the prioritisation threshold has been reached for a provider, visa processing will continue at Priority 2 - Standard priority.

This new approach creates a more even approach to visa processing across a range of different provider types and locations, including for regional and small providers. MD111 will continue to support the well-managed and orderly processing of visa applications that supports the education sector equitably, while achieving Government's wider international education objectives.

Priority 1 – High will move faster through processing relative to Priority 2 – Standard. MD111 is not a cap, nor does it set the criteria to approve or refuse a student visa application.

As always, the department will continue to prioritise the offshore Student visa caseload as we move into Semester 1 2025, while the onshore caseload will also continue to be processed.

What is most important, is that intending students lodge their visa applications as early as possible, and complete with all requested information at time of lodgement to support smooth processing.

The development of MD111 and its prioritisation approach has been informed by consultation with the international education sector undertaken by the Department of Education and the Department of Employment and Workplace Relations throughout 2024. The Department of Home Affairs, the Department of Education and the Department of Employment and Workplace Relations are working with the education sector to provide information about this new processing arrangement for Student visas. This will include targeted engagement through webinars, discussions with peak bodies in the education sector, as well as our website updates and social media outreach.

So who is eligible for ‘Priority 1 – High’ visa processing?

In brief, Priority 1 – High, processing will apply to Student visa applications associated with providers who have not yet reached their prioritisation threshold, which is 80 percent of their 2025 indicative allocation of new overseas student commencements in the higher education and Vocational Education and Training sectors.

Indicative allocations for both higher education and vocational education and training providers can be found at:

- Indicative allocations for higher education new overseas student commencements 2025 - Department of Education, Australian Government and
- Indicative allocations for VET new overseas student commencements 2025 - Department of Employment and Workplace Relations, Australian Government

Priority 1 – High visa processing will also apply to a range of sectors and student types, for example, the schools and higher degree by research sectors, as well as scholarship and TAFE students, and those from the Pacific and Timor-Leste.

Priority 2 – Standard visa processing will apply to providers who have reached their prioritisation threshold, subsequent entrants, and any other offshore Student visa application.

Indicative allocations for higher education new overseas student commencements 2025

Arrangements to improve the integrity and sustainability of the international education sector are set out in the Education Services for Overseas Students Amendment (Quality and Integrity) Bill 2024.
